Procurement Procedure for Goods and Services

Example Corp | No. PR-005/2026

CHAPTER I GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 Purpose

This procedure makes sure that Example Corp buys goods and services fairly, with proper records and free from conflicts of interest.

CHAPTER II METHODS AND APPROVAL

Article 2 Value Limits and Methods

Purchases of up to $1,000 can be made by direct purchase.

Purchases above $1,000 and up to $10,000 must compare at least 3 quotations.

Purchases above $10,000 are made through a limited tender or an open tender.

Article 3 Approval

A purchase request must be approved by the head of the unit and the Finance team. Purchases above $10,000 also need the approval of a director.

CHAPTER III SUPPLIERS

Article 4 Supplier Evaluation

Suppliers are evaluated on price, quality, punctuality and administrative compliance. A supplier with a record of repeated delays can be removed from the supplier list.

Article 5 Conflicts of Interest

An employee who has a family relationship or financial interest with a supplier must declare it and must not take part in the evaluation.

Appendix 1 Procurement Document Checklist

The documents that must be complete: the purchase request, the quotation comparison where required, approval according to the value limit, the contract or purchase order, and the handover record.

Appendix 2 Handover Record Format

The handover record contains the handover date, details of the goods or services, their condition when received, and the signatures of the recipient and the supplier.

This document is a fictional sample for demonstrating DocRAG. The company, policies and figures in it are not real.